LIFE-CHANGING IMPACT OF FRAGILITY FRACTURES

- Long-term care: 35% of patients aged 90+ move into long-term care following hip fracture.
- Sick days: Taken in Italy by working persons due to fragility fractures.
- Burden on caregivers: Hip fractures, 370 hours; vertebral fractures, 263 hours; other fractures, 130 hours.

EFFECTIVE MANAGEMENT IMPROVES OUTCOMES AND REDUCES COSTS

- Increasing adherence to treatment can improve overall outcomes and reduce costs.

FINANCIAL IMPACT

- Hip fractures: 1/5 of total fractures, 59% of total costs.
- First year: Highest with hip fractures.

TOTAL NUMBER OF FRAGILITY FRACTURES PER YEAR

- 563,388 fractures, of which 51% were MOFs.

SIGNIFICANT HEALTHCARE COSTS

- Fracture-related costs: €11.8 billion in 2030.
- Cost-effective care delivery model to improve outcomes and reduce costs.

MASSIVE TREATMENT GAP

- 77% of women do not receive treatment following a fracture.